5. On 1 September the Kwangsi Military District and the local military control committees within the province terminated their joint control and inspection of provincial telecommunications facilities and activities. However, local military control committees planned to continue telecommunications censorship activities. The program was terminated because public opinion was against it and because more control was to be exercised over the land reform program.

6. By 1 September the Kwangsi Provincial Telecommunications Administration and the Kwangsi Provincial Postal Administration had been reorganized into the Kwangsi Provincial Postal and Telecommunications Administration. The Ministry of Posts
